Back By Popular Demand

Pittsfield, MA – Berkshire Theatre Group (BTG) and Kate Maguire (Artistic Director, CEO) are proud to announce free readings at The Unicorn Theatre (6 East Street, Stockbridge, MA) of So This Is My Family: Mr. Green Part 2, Jeff Baron's continuation to his award-winning play, Visiting Mr. Green on July 12. Back by popular demand, Evidence of Things Unseen by Katie Forgette will be presented on July 26. It is strongly recommended to reserve your ticket in advance, due to limited seating.

Enjoy a lunch at Jane's Café on The Unicorn Theatre patio, before each reading, by making a selection from salad and sandwiches provided by On A Roll Café.

Originally a web series featuring artists expressing various points of view and social commentary, the No Boundaries in Art series continues on and off the stage.

In Jeff Baron's beloved and award-winning play, Visiting Mr. Green, a chance encounter brought two unlikely lives together. Three years later, the relationship between the two, 90-year-old Mr. Green, and young executive, Ross, is going strong. In this touching continuation, two additional characters bring new adventures to this heartwarming and funny story.

There will be a talkback with playwright and director, Jeff Baron, immediately following the reading.

CAST:

Kale Browne, Mr. Green
Rylan Morsbach, Ross
Michael Sullivan, Chris
Carolyn Kramer, Hannah

ABOUT THE PLAYWRIGHT:

Jeff Baron's first play, Visiting Mr. Green, premiered at Berkshire Theatre Group in 1996 and is one of the most-produced plays in the world with over 500 productions in 49 countries. His more recent plays have premiered in Europe, South America and Australia. His inside-showbiz comic novels, I Represent Sean Rosen and Sean Rosen Is Not for Sale are published by HarperCollins. For television, he has written for The Tracey Ullman Show, Sisters and Nickelodeon.

About Berkshire Theatre Group

The Colonial Theatre, founded in 1903, and Berkshire Theatre Festival, founded in 1928, are two of the oldest cultural organizations in the Berkshires. In 2010, under the leadership of Artistic Director and CEO Kate Maguire, the two organizations merged to form Berkshire Theatre Group (BTG). Berkshire Theatre Group's mission is to support wide ranging artistic exploration and acclaimed performances in theatre, dance, music and entertainment. Every year, BTG produces and presents performances to over 68,000 attendees and, through our Educational Program, serves over 13,000 Berkshire County school children annually.
