WELCOME TO OUR THEATRE!

Berkshire Theatre Festival and The Colonial Theatre, now called Berkshire Theatre Group, will celebrate 100 years of bringing theatre, dance, music, comedy and arts in educational programming to the community in 2028. In the United States, that is a milestone to be celebrated. And indeed, we are preparing for the celebration and endeavor to make sure that the foundation of our organization is ready for another century of creative production.

We present all kinds of artistic work. Our company is rooted in supporting artists who grace our world with their insight and poeticism. Why have we gathered for all these decades together to witness the work of artists? I have heard many responses: to be entertained, to have the spirit lifted, to learn, to gain insight about who we are, to escape, to enter a new world, to laugh, to be amazed, to be with others, to heal...on and on. Each of you in our audience knows why you have entered our theatres.

We know that through our efforts, we transform communities. We open doorways of growth to deeper understanding and to wonderful experiences. We want our doors to open as wide as possible so that there are no barriers and persons of all backgrounds may meet and learn about each other. As we proceed to greet 2028, we see a world in which we must navigate challenges as seemingly never before. We step forward with you to make sure this artistic center holds. In 2020, when theatres around the world were shuttered, we persevered and continued to present live theatre. At Berkshire Theatre Group, we know challenges and we believe deeply that we must continue to preserve our humanity through the creative arts. So onward and together—let’s meet the future.

Over the decades, friends of Berkshire Theatre Festival and The Colonial Theatre have helped ensure the future of the artistry you see on our stages, the work we do with students, and the upkeep of our historic buildings through generous legacy gifts. These generous contributors are part of The Neil E. Ellenoff Legacy Fund, and are recognized for generations to come for their lasting impact.

Consider supporting Berkshire Theatre Group as you do your estate planning. Remembering a loved one with a gift to BTG is a lasting one. Giving options abound including: designated funds held by a foundation or other fiduciary and other special trusts that can provide you or your family with income while also benefiting the theatre. Making a bequest will ensure our theatres’ vibrant future.

Together, we make Pittsfield beautiful

You can help!
Visit pittsfieldbeautiful.org to donate or volunteer.
Berkshire Theatre Group would not be able to present the finest theatre, music, and performing arts year-round on four stages without the generosity and dedication of our talented team of volunteers. They help usher patrons, sell concessions, fold programs, scan tickets, tend to plants, assist with administrative duties, park cars and so much more.

Our 200+ volunteers are the backbone of Berkshire Theatre Group. Please look to the people dressed in black and white for assistance.

If you are interested in joining our team, please contact: Fabienne Theriault, Manager of Volunteer Services, at (413) 448-8084 x31 or email Volunteer@BerkshireTheatreGroup.org

In Memoriam

Marie Feder
1925 - 2022

Marie Feder served on the Board of Trustees for Berkshire Theatre in many capacities for over 30 years. In her time of service, Marie enhanced the beauty of our campuses and enriched the lives of the community members we serve.

May her memory be eternal.
